

EVENT MANAGEMENT

Be an always-on event manager who stays ahead of customer expectations

Textlocal can help change the way you manage an event. You can cut down on intermediaries by reaching out to customers directly whether it is to promote an event, collect RSVPs, send tickets, or even to gauge audience feedback.

Let your event be an SMS away

Use Textlocal bulk SMS to promote your events and share event brochures, webpage links or even booth layouts with your opt-in database. Insert PDFs, images or weblinks as required.

Send timely event alerts

Say bye to disgruntled customers. Integrate Textlocal SMS APIs with your CRM and send instant SMS updates regarding your events, ticket purchases, and last minute promotions. With Textlocal's best-in-class delivery rates and low latencies, your customers are assured of receiving updates in time.

Venue for the Bangalore hackathon event (on 25th August) has changed to Indra auditorium on MG Road.

The quick RSVP route

Create mobile registration forms using Textlocal and make it easy for customers to log details. Alternatively, you can request users to RSVP by sending a simple text to your SMS inbox or by giving a missed call.

Send exciting promotional campaigns

Stir interest for your event by sending media-rich personalized SMS campaigns using Textlocal's easy and powerful UI. With Textlocal's automatic scrubbing of DND numbers for promotional campaigns, opt-in and opt-out paths, you can be assured of regulatory compliance and customer satisfaction.

Single screen mobile tickets

Say no to paper, long queues and expensive ticketing software. Use Textlocal to send mobile tickets to participants, which can also be scanned at the venue to track the list of attendees. Save paper, save time.
